Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 21-27, 33-35, 39-41, and 53-58 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement for reasons for allowance.

2. Claim 21 is allowable over the prior art of record since the cited references taken individually or in combination fail to particularly teach or fairly suggest a communications method, for an endpoint being one of an Internet Protocol (IP) telephone and a telephone coupled to a terminal gateway, registering a first line of the endpoint with a first telephony server and registering a second line of the endpoint with a second telephony server differing from the first telephony server, the first telephony server registering the endpoint by storing a list identifying endpoints, including the endpoint, in communication with the first telephony server and the second telephony server, and at least one of the first and second telephony servers including information accessible by both the first and second telephony servers and associated with the endpoint, the information including a telephone number, a local line number, an IP address and a Media Access Control (MAC) address of the endpoint, establishing a first telephone call on the first line of the endpoint to a second endpoint via the first telephony server, and establishing a second telephone call on the second line of endpoint to a third endpoint via the second telephony server.
